

ENVIRONMENT

<https://www.scientificamerican.com/article/top-10-myths-about-sustainability/>

Myth 1: Nobody knows what sustainability really means.

Myth 2: Sustainability is all about the environment.

Myth 3: “Sustainable” is a synonym for “green.”

Myth 4: It’s all about recycling.

Myth 5: Sustainability is too expensive.

Myth 6: Sustainability means lowering our standard of living.

Myth 7: Consumer choices and grassroots activism, not government intervention, offer the fastest, most efficient routes to sustainability.

Myth 8: Consumer choices and grassroots activism, not government intervention, offer the fastest, most efficient routes to sustainability.

Myth 9: New technology is always the answer.

Myth 10: Sustainability is ultimately a population problem.

WOMAN

<https://www.care.org/work/features/10-myths-about-women>

Myth 1: Women's empowerment comes at the expense of men

Myth 2: Girls can't do math or science

Myth 3: Women crack under pressure

Myth 4: It's a man's world

Myth 6: Women can't be trusted with money

Myth 7: Women can't lead

Myth 8: A woman's health is not a man's concern

Myth 9: Girls belong in marriage, not school

Myth 10: A woman's place is in the home

Myth 11: Managing ethics in the workplace has little practical relevance.

IMMIGRATION

<https://www.tolerance.org/magazine/spring-2011/ten-myths-about-immigration>

Myth 1. Most immigrants are here illegally.

Myth 2. It's easy to enter the country legally. My ancestors did; why can't immigrants today?

Myth 3. Today's immigrants don't want to learn English.

Myth 4. Immigrants take good jobs from U.S. citizens.

Myth 5. "The worst" people from other countries are coming to the United States and bringing crime and violence.

Myth 6. Undocumented immigrants don't pay taxes and burden the national economy.

Myth 7. The United States is being overrun by immigrants like never before.

Myth 8. We can stop undocumented immigrants coming to the United States by building a wall along the border with Mexico.

Myth 9. Banning immigrants and refugees from majority-Muslim countries will protect the United States from terrorists.

Myth 10. Refugees are not screened before entering the United States.

Myth 11: Our employees are ethical so we don't need attention to business ethics.

TECHNOLOGY

<https://thebestschools.org/magazine/25-popular-technology-myths-debunked/>

<https://techwiser.com/myth-in-technology/>

<https://www.rd.com/culture/tech-myths/>

Myth 1: Cellphones give you brain cancer

Myth 2: The World Wide Web and the Internet are the same thing

Myth 3: Laptop can make your sterile

Myth 4: WiFi Radiations are harmful

Myth 5: 100% security

Myth 6: Private/Incognito browsing mode keeps your computer activity anonymous

Myth 7: Password protected networks are safe from hackers

Myth 8: Robots will steal your job

Myth 9: The newest products are always the best

Myth 10: The Cloud is in the sky

ENTREPRENEURS

<https://businesstown.com/articles/10-myths-about-entrepreneurs/>

Myth 1: Entrepreneurs Are High Risk Takers

Myth 2: Entrepreneurs Are Born

Myth 3: Entrepreneurs Are Mainly Motivated to Get Rich

Myth 4: Entrepreneurs Give Little Attention to Their Personal Life

Myth 5: Entrepreneurs Are Often High-Tech Wizards

Myth 6: Entrepreneurs Finance Their Business with Venture Capital

Myth 7: Entrepreneurs Are Often Ruthless or Deceptive

Myth 8: Entrepreneurs Have Limited Dedication

Myth 9: Business ethics is more a matter of religion than management.

Myth 10: Business ethics is superfluous — it only asserts the obvious: “do good!”

Myth 11: Business ethics and social responsibility are the same thing.